Engineers, artists bring future cities to life in stunning CGI

Produced by MacGillivray Freeman Films, in partnership with ASCE, Cities of the Future was largely inspired by the Society's Future World Vision initiative, particularly the Mega City 2070 project, says Odeh. Indeed, early in the development process, the MacGillivray Freeman team took a virtual "tour" of Future World Vision's digital platform that "opened our eyes to the future!" says Mary Jane Dodge, the executive producer of Cities of the Future.
